OBJECT AND SCOPE OF THE INSURANCE

The Travel insurance guarantees will be provided, in any case, according to the terms and conditions set forth in the policy and for events derived from the risks specified therein.

For avoidance of doubt, these Travel Insurance General Conditions are valid for travelling and stay abroad provided that the required premium has been paid and that the insured has the intention to return to the Home Country.

The aforesaid Specific Policy Conditions will set forth the guarantees effectively taken out, together with the Limits of or Sums Insured for each of them, as well as the scope of application of the coverage.

The Specific Policy Conditions will prevail over what is set forth in these General conditions as far as in the Specific Policy Conditions are included the guarantees expressly subscribed by the Policyholder with the Insurer and budget by the Insurer to the Policyholder.

TRAVEL ASSISTANCE BENEFITS

By virtue of these Travel Insurance General Conditions, the Insurer guarantees to provide the Insured with immediate material help in the form of financial benefit or services, when the Insured is in difficulties as a result of an unforeseen event that occurred when the insured is travelling abroad during the period contracted under the Specific Policy Conditions.

When, as a result of an accident covered by these Travel Insurance General Conditions, an Insured has to extend his/her period of stay outside his/her home, the Travel Assistance benefits granted by this section are automatically extended for that Insured person, once only and up to a maximum period of 10 days. The limits referring to benefits derived from the claim that have given rise to the extension are not increased or extended.

The Insured shall submit at Insurer's Expense to medical examination as often as may be required by the Insurer in connection with any claims.

ARTICLE 3

The guarantees relating to the persons insured are listed in this article, and will be rendered in accordance with the conditions set out below.

1) Medical Expenses and Hospitalization abroad

If the Insured is admitted into a hospital as an inpatient or suffer from any medically necessary treatment for emergency situation as determined by the physician, the Insured or someone must contact the Company's hotline or contact number on the Insured's behalf immediately.

The Company's medical team will maintain the telephone contacts necessary with the centre and with the doctor's attending to the Insured to supervise the provision of proper health care.

The coverage will be on a cashless basis if done within the accredited network of medical providers. Otherwise, it will be paid by the Insurance Company thru reimbursement subject to policy terms and conditions.

The company will pay up to the amount shown in the Table of Benefits for the necessary and reasonable cost incurred during the trip as a result of the Insured's becoming ill, being injured or dying. This includes:

- Medical, surgical and hospital treatment and ambulance cost
- If the Insured cannot return to Philippines as he/she originally planned and PGA Sompo approve this. The company will pay for:
 - Extra Accommodation (Room Only) and Travel Expenses (Economy Class unless a higher grade of travel is confirmed as medically necessary and authorized by PGA Sompo) to allow the Insured to return to Philippines.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

If the claim relates to the Insured's return travel to Philippines and he/she do not hold a return ticket, The Company will deduct from the Insured's claim an amount equal to his/her original carrier's published one way airfare (based on the same class of travel as that paid by the Insured for his/her outward trip) for the route used of the Insured's return.

2) Emergency Local Follow-Up Treatment

The Company will extend benefits for covered follow up medical expenses incurred in the Philippines, for the treatment of an accident or sickness which is caused by, resulting from, or incurred or contracted during the trip overseas, including whilst in his or her inbound trip that necessitated First-Aid Treatment. (This first aid-treatment only refers to incidents happening during the clients' journey back to the Philippines and upon check-in and passing the immigration, specifically inside the plane or in the airport after check-in). Said medical expenses must be incurred within thirty (30) days from the date the Insured returns to his or her place of residence in the Philippines. Admission to the Hospital must be within twelve (12) hours after arrival and must be a continuation of any medical attention sought while traveling. In no event shall the total amount payable under this extension shall not exceed Php25, 000.00 as stated in the Schedule of Benefit. If the Insured's needs follow -up medical treatment, the Insured must furnish the relevant medical reports and invoices of the incurred expenses, stating the need for the follow up medical expenses and approval from the Company's medical team.

In no event shall the total amount payable under this Section exceed one hundred (100%) of the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

3) Emergency and Accidental Dental Care

The Company will meet the cost for strictly necessary emergency dental treatment of natural teeth only for the immediate relief of pain and not occasioned by the previous deteriorated state of the teeth, gums or jaws up to the limit provided at the Specific or Special Conditions of the Policy.

Crowned teeth, crowns, bridges, dentures etc. are not to be understood as natural teeth. This coverage is restricted to treatments if pain, infection and removal of infected tooth.

The indicated sub-limit on the policy schedule forms part of the Medical Benefit.

4) Transport or repatriation in the event of illness or accident sustained by the Insured during the course of a trip / Emergency Medical Evacuation

In the event of an accident or sudden illness covered under the program, the Company will take charge of transferring or repatriating the Insured to a properly equipped health centre or to his/her usual country of residence, the Philippines.

The Company, through its medical team, will decide which health centre the Insured is transferred to or whether repatriation is necessary, depending on the situation or gravity of the state the latter is in.

Afterwards, the Company's medical team will maintain the telephone contacts necessary with the medical centre and with the doctors attending to the Insured, and on the basis thereof will decide whether to transfer or repatriate the Insured, and on the most suitable means of transport to use.

For minor or less serious illnesses or accidents, which in the opinion of the medical team do not require repatriation, transfer will be performed in ambulance or another means of transport, to the place where adequate medical assistance can be provided.

5) Repatriation of mortal remains

In the event of the death of the Insured (as covered under the policy), the Company will make the arrangements necessary for his/her transport or repatriation and will meet the cost of the transfer expenses to the place of interment, cremation or funeral ceremony to the Philippines.

Payment of expenses for interment, cremation or funeral ceremony is excluded from this guarantee.

6) Rescuer's Expense Indemnity due to a covered accident including Compassionate Visit or Return of Minor Children

Should the Insured be hospitalized due to sudden illness or accident for more than five (5) days or is deceased, and accompanied by a minor (up to 15 years old) during the event and if no adult accompanies the said minor, the Company will provide a suitable person to look after him/her during the trip to the hospital where the former is hospitalized or the company will meet the cost in respect of an economy roundtrip (outbound and inbound) transfer of one immediate family member, having the same country of residence as the Insured to accompany the Insured and minor considering this minor is unable to travel by his/her own means of transport or the means of transport used for the initial trip.

OR

Likewise due to same event when the Insured is admitted to a Hospital as an in-patient for more than five (5) consecutive days as a result of Injury or Sickness occurring during the Period of Insurance while the Insured is on a Trip and his/her medical condition does not allow evacuation and no adult member of the Insured's family is with him/her, the Insurer shall arrange for the transfer of a person chosen by the Insured or an Immediate Family Member from the Usual Place of Residence or Usual Country of Residence of the Insured. The Insurer shall meet the cost in respect of an economy round-trip transfer and necessary and relevant accommodation, transportation and meal expenses there of one (1) Immediate Family Member from the Usual Place of Residence or Usual Country of Residence of the Insured, up to the amount shown in the Table of Benefits.

Either one of said benefits includes include the indemnity for the rescuers arising out of a covered accident suffered by the Insured. Coverage is part of the benefit limit.

Note: You may claim ONLY one of these benefits per trip: Compassionate Visit or Return of Minor Children

SPECIFIC EXCLUSION FOR THE TRAVEL ASSISTANCE BENEFIT

In addition to the General Exclusions, the Insured is not covered for:

1. Any treatment or surgery which we think Insured does not need immediately and can wait until Insured returns home.
2. Any costs of treatment or surgery that was carried out more than 12 months after the date of the incident which Insured is claiming for.
3. The extra cost of single or private room accommodation unless it is medically necessary.

ARTICLE 4

TRIP CANCELLATION AND CURTAILMENT EXPENSES BENEFIT

The guaranteed benefits relating to expenses for cancellations of the contracted trip are those listed in this article and shall be provided in accordance with the conditions set forth below:

Note: The guarantee shall only be valid when it is contracted at the same time as the trip covered by the policy provided that the Insured has no knowledge of any unforeseeable circumstances that will possibly lead to cancellation of the trip.

Trip cancellation cover will start on the date on which the trip is contracted and shall finalize at the moment the trip begins, i.e. boarding the collective means of transport to be used for the trip.

8) Trip Cancellation (Cancelling the Trip before Departure)

The Company will pay up to the amount shown in the Table of Benefits for unused and non-refundable portion which have been paid in advance for the following:

- Travel and accommodation expenses and pre-paid meal expenses which the Insured paid or agreed to pay under a contract and which he/she cannot recover from any source.
- The cost of excursions, tours and activities which the Insured paid for and which he/she cannot recover from any source;

Provided that the trip is cancelled before it actually starts and this is for one of the following reasons arising subsequent to taking out the insurance, which impedes undertaking the trip on the contracted dates:

- a) Insured's unforeseen death, injury, serious illness (excluding pre-existing illness) or accident
- b) Insured's Immediate Family Members' unforeseen death, injury, accident or serious illness (excluding pre-existing illness)
- c) Serious damage caused by fire, explosion or robbery in Insured's Usual Place of Residence in the Home Country, the Philippines or the Insured's own or rented business premises, which rendered them uninhabitable or under serious risk of greater damage occurring which justify indispensably his /her presence.

9) Trip Curtailment or Cutting the Trip Short

If the Insured needs to return home to the Philippines or return to his/her Usual place of residence in the Philippines earlier than planned and he/she wants the Company to pay, the Insured must contact/call the Company's hotline number for approval immediately.

Trip curtailment is when Insured's trip is cut short and Insured returns to the usual country of residence in the Philippines earlier than planned due to unforeseen circumstances as enumerated under this benefit.

The benefits relating to a trip curtailment comes into force from the time the trip begins (boarding the means of group transport used on the trip) and terminates on the day when the travel object of the insure ends.

The Company will provide this cover up to the limit stated in the Policy Schedule for the proportional part of the value of the journey forfeited (which is non-refundable) if the cutting short of the Insured's trip is necessary and unavoidable as a result of the following:

- a) Insured's treating medical practitioner certifying that he/she is unfit to continue with the original itinerary. Serious illness (excluding pre-existing illness), serious bodily accident or death sustained by the Insured during Insured's trip object of insurance.
- b) The unforeseen death, serious injury or illness (excluding pre-existing illness) of the Insured's Immediate Family Member/s

Note: Trip Termination due to Insured and Insured Immediate Family pre-existing illnesses are NOT covered.

- c) Serious damage caused by fire, explosion or robbery in Insured's Usual Place of Residence in the Home Country, the Philippines or the Insured's own or rented business premises, which rendered them uninhabitable or under serious risk of greater damage occurring which justify indispensably his /her presence.

The guarantees will only be valid if provided that Insured has no knowledge of any unforeseeable circumstances that will possibly lead to curtailment of the trip.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR CANCELLATION AND CURTAILMENT COVER

The Insured will be under the obligation to notify his/her travel provider within three (3) days or as soon as Insured has knowledge causing it and the Company of the cancellation or curtailment of the trip as soon as he/she has knowledge of the event causing it, and the Company will be exempted from compensating the expenses or penalizations that accrue from the moment of that notification in the event of failure to fulfil this obligation.

In order to claim compensation for this benefit, the Insured must submit the following documents:

1. Copy of the document vouching for the occurrence of the accident (medical report or death certificates, etc.) that document must of necessity, reflect the date of the occurrence (admission to hospital, death and accident), the diagnosis

OBJECT AND SCOPE OF INSURANCE

"TWENTY FOUR (24) HOUR" COVER:

Insurance covers accidents the Insured may suffer at any time, twenty four hours a day, during the trip.

The indemnity limit is that provided at the Specific Conditions or at the individual Insurance Certificate. Nevertheless, if the Company has paid an indemnity under the Disability cover, as a result of the same accident, it shall indemnify the difference between the amount paid and the insured sum in the event of death.

The indemnity limit for all the affected Insureds by the same accident is USD 2,000,000.00 (TWO MILLION), regardless the number of Insureds or policies involved.

ACCIDENT BENEFITS OCCURRED DURING THE PERIOD OF INSURANCE

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

According to the present article of these General Conditions, an accident is:

- A. The bodily injury suffered during the term of the contract, which derives from a violent, sudden, external cause and one that is not intended by the Insured. For the purposes of this policy, the following shall also be construed to be accidents:
 - i) Asphyxia or injuries as a consequence of gases or vapours, immersion or submersion, or from the consumption of liquid or solid matter other than foodstuffs.
 - ii) Infections resulting from an accident covered by the policy.
 - iii) Injuries that are a consequence of surgical operations or medical treatments resulting from an accident covered by the policy.

- B. Where an accident should lead to the death of the Insured, the Company shall pay the Beneficiary the sum determined for this eventuality.

If as a result of an accident covered by the policy the Insured person/s should die, the Company will pay the beneficiary the Sum Insured set forth in the Specific Conditions for that purpose.

- C. If, prior to the death, the Company should have paid an indemnity for disablement, as a result of the same accident and this had occurred in less than one year, it shall indemnify the difference between the amount paid and the insured sum in the event of death. Should the indemnity already paid out be greater, the Company shall not be liable to pay out any further amounts.
- D. If, upon death of the Insured, there should be no designated beneficiary, nor rules to decide upon one, the insured sum shall go on to form part of the policyholder's estate. Where there are several beneficiaries, and save agreement to the contrary, payment of the sum insured shall be divided equally between them, or in proportion to their share of the estate, where those designated are the legal heirs. That part not received by a beneficiary shall augment all the others, save agreement to the contrary, except in the case where any of them should be a wilful causer of the accident. In such a case, any designation in favour of the same shall be deemed null and void and the corresponding part not received shall go on to form part of the Policyholder's estate.

PERMANENT DISABILITY OR DISABLEMENT

- 1) This shall be deemed to consist of the permanent anatomic loss or lack of functionality of limbs or organs as a result of an accident.

The amount of the indemnity shall be determined by applying to the Sum Insured the percentages established in the Injury Table of this Benefit.

If the Insured dies before determination of the permanent disablement, and the death is not a result of the accident, then the right to the benefit remains. The benefit is determined based on the expected definite degree of disablement based on the medical reports, if the Insured has not died.

2) Applying the table of injuries shall be governed by the following principles:

- a. When the injuries affect the non-dominant upper limb, the left of a right-handed person or vice versa, the indemnity percentages for the same shall be reduced by 15 per cent
- b. In order to determine the said percentages, neither the Insured's profession or age, nor any other factor not included in the table shall be taken into account.
- c. The accumulation of all the disablement percentages arising from the same accident shall not give rise to an indemnity of over 100 per cent.
- d. The total lack of functionality of some limb or organ shall be considered as total loss thereof.
- e. The sum of diverse partial percentages related to the same limb or organ shall not exceed the percentage of indemnity established for the total loss thereof.
- f. Those types of disablement not expressly specified shall be indemnified by analogy with other cases that do appear therein.
- g. Partial limitations and anatomic losses shall be indemnified proportionally, with respect to the total loss of the affected limb or organ.
- h. In the event that, prior to the accident, some member or organ suffered amputations or functional limitations, the percentage of the indemnity shall be the difference between the pre-existing disablement and that present after the accident.

2) For the purposes of the definitive indemnity, the degree of disability shall be determined by the Company whenever the Insured's physical condition is medically recognized as being definitive and the corresponding medical certificate of incapacity is provided. Where twelve months pass from the date of the accident, without the above

3) being established, the Insured may request from the Company a further period of up to twelve months more, after which time the latter must determine the disability on the basis of what it believes, will be the definitive condition.

4) Should the Insured not accept the Company's proposal, duly made in accordance with the medical certificate of incapacity and in line with the scale outlined in the policy, the following rules shall apply:

- a.) Each party shall appoint a medical expert and their written acceptance must be duly recorded. Should one of the parties not make such an appointment, he shall be obligated to do so within eight days of the date on which the party who had once done so requires him to comply; should the former still not name anyone within this period, it shall be taken that he accepts the report issued by the other party's appraiser and he shall be duly bound by it.

b.) Where the experts reach an agreement, this shall be reflected in a joint report, which shall state the causes of the loss, the degree of disability, any other circumstances that have a bearing on the determination of the same and the corresponding percentage of indemnity proposed.

c.) Where no agreement between the medical experts is forthcoming, both parties shall agree on the designation of a third appraiser. Should this agreed destination not prove possible, this shall be incumbent on the Judge corresponding to the Insured's address, in an act of voluntary jurisdiction and in keeping with the procedures envisaged for the selection of appraisers under the Philippines law of civil procedure d.) Should the experts' report be challenged, the Company shall pay the minimum amount that could be due according to the knowledge it possesses. Otherwise, it shall pay within five days the amount of compensation indicated by the said experts.

Exclusions:

1. The Company does not cover the consequences originated or produced by the following:
 - a) Bad faith on the part of the Insured or those intentionally caused by the same, save where the damage was sustained in order to avoid something worse.
 - b) Wars, with or without prior declaration, and any conflicts or international interventions using force or duress. Events arising from terrorism, mutiny or crowd disturbances. As well as damage caused during the course of strikes.
 - c) Events or actions of the Armed Forces or security Forces in peace time.
 - d) Extraordinary natural phenomena such as floods, earthquakes, landslides, volcanic eruptions, atypical cyclonic storms, falling objects from space and aerolites, and in general, any extraordinary atmospheric, seismic or geological phenomenon.
 - e) Fall of sideral bodies and meteorites.
 - f) Those derived from radioactive nuclear energy.
 - g) Those caused when the Insured takes part in bets, challenges or brawls, save in the case of legitimate defence or necessity.
 - h) Accidents caused by the Insured's participation in criminal acts, or as a result of his / her fraudulent, seriously negligent or reckless actions.
 - i) Accidents suffered as a result of being inebriated or under the effect of drugs, toxics or narcotics. Inebriation shall be taken to mean when the blood alcohol level is greater than 0.50 grams per 1.000 cubic centimetres, or the Insured is fined or convicted for this cause.
 - j) Intoxication or poisoning from the consumption of foodstuff.
 - k) Infectious diseases, such as sleeping sickness, malaria, Paludism, yellow fever and, in general, illnesses of any kind, fainting fits, syncope, strokes, epilepsy or epileptiforms and caused by any kind of loss of consciousness as a result of an accident as the latter is defined in these General Conditions.
2. The consequences of accidents that occurred prior to the coming into force of this insurance are also excluded, despite the fact that they become apparent during its lifetime, as well as the consequences or after-effects of an accident covered which become apparent after the three hundred and sixty five (365) days subsequent to the date on which it occurred.
3. Unless expressly included in the Private or Special Conditions and subject to payment of the relevant surcharge premium, the consequences of the following are excluded from the guarantee object of this contract:

- c) The use, as a passenger or crew, of means of air navigation not authorized for the public transport of travellers, as well as helicopters.
- d) Accidents due to a physical or manual risk activity (paid or not, but related to the Insured's occupation) such as: driving of vehicles, use of machinery, loading and unloading, work in heights/levelling or confined locations, assembly of machinery, undertaking work on floating or underwater / sub-aquatic platforms, mines or quarries, use of chemical substances, laboratories of any kind, and any other dangerous activities.

AGGRAVATION OF THE RISK

Throughout the contract period, the Policyholder or the insured must inform the Company, as soon as possible, of any and all circumstances that increase the risk and are of such a nature that, had the latter been aware of the same at the inception of the contract, it would not have entered into this contract or it would have concluded it with more onerous conditions.

The following are deemed aggravating circumstances:

- a) A change of the insured's activity or occupation, even where this is temporary, that implies a greater possibility of accidents with respect to the situation declared. Domestic work or repairs carried out on a non-profit basis shall not be considered in this.
- b) Permanent incapacity or disability and chronic diseases suffered by the Insured as a result of events not covered by this Policy.

The following are deemed aggravating circumstances:

- c) A change of the insured's activity or occupation, even where this is temporary, that implies a greater possibility of accidents with respect to the situation declared. Domestic work or repairs carried out on a non-profit basis shall not be considered in this.
- d) Permanent incapacity or disability and chronic diseases suffered by the Insured as a result of events not covered by this Policy.

OBLIGATIONS IN CASE OF LOSS

The Insured is duly obligated, save for some justified reason, to agree to an examination by the doctors the Company may designate, where it deems this necessary in order to complete the reports furnished, and, at the Company 's expense, attend the corresponding medical facilities for said examination.

The Policyholder, the Insured, or where appropriate, the beneficiaries shall be obligated to furnish the Company with all manner of information the latter may require in order to adequately judge the case, in relation to the circumstances or state of health of the Insured prior to the occurrence of the loss incident.

The Insured shall be responsible for any injury that, through their acts or omissions, may be cause to the Company in its right to subrogation.

The actions arising from this insurance contract shall prescribe after five (5) years, as from the date on which they may be exercised.

Specific exclusions of Accident Benefit:

In addition to the General Exclusions to all the guarantees of this policy described in Article 4 of these General Conditions, accident benefits are not guaranteed when they are brought about by:

- a. Accidents as a consequence of a risky undertaking in which the Insured has recklessly endangered his or her life or body, unless this risky undertaking was reasonably necessary for legitimate self or attempts to save himself or herself, others, animals or goods.
- b. Accidents which arise as a consequence of a sickly condition or as a consequence of the Insured's bodily or physic abnormalities, unless these circumstances are a result of an accident for which Insurer was obliged to pay indemnification under this insurance.
- c. Psychic affections, as a result of any cause, unless medically determinable as a direct result of brain damage caused by the accident.
- d. Hernia inguinalis (rupture), lumbago, ruptured intervertebral disk (hernia nuclei pulposi), tendovaginitis crepitans, muscle spraining, periartrosis humeroscapularis, tennis-elbow (epicondylitis lateralis), or golfer's-arm (epicondylitis medialis).

- k. Intoxication or poisoning from the consumption of foodstuffs.
- l. Infectious diseases, such as sleeping sickness, malaria, Paludism, yellow fever and, in general, illnesses of any kind, fainting fits, syncope, strokes, epilepsy or epileptiforms and caused by any kind of loss of consciousness as a result of an accident as the latter is defined in these General Conditions.
- m. The consequences of accidents that occurred prior to the coming into force of this insurance are also excluded, despite the fact that they become apparent during its lifetime, as well as the consequences or after-effects of an accident covered which become apparent after the three hundred and sixty-five days subsequent to the date on which it occurred.

BENEFITS FOR PERSONAL LIABILITY

17) Personal Liability

1. The Company guarantees the Insured, by payment by the latter of the relevant premium, to pay the compensation for which it may be civilly liable by law, for bodily or material damages caused involuntarily to third parties and products during the lifetime of the insurance contract, according to the definitions, terms and conditions set out in the policy and for incidents arising from the risk specified therein.
2. The limit of the Sum Insured indicated in the Specific Conditions and provided that the object of the claim is included under the policy cover, the following are also guaranteed, even in the case of groundless claims:
 - a) The furnishing of court bail, to guarantee the civil results of the procedure.
 - b) The legal court costs, which will be paid in the same proportion that exists between the compensation that the Company should pay, according to what is provided for in the policy, and the total amount of liability of the Insured in the loss.
3. Save express agreement to the contrary, the Company will assume the legal supervision as regards the claim by the damaged party, and will meet the cost of the defence expenses that arise. The Insured shall provide the collaboration necessary to assist the legal supervision assumed by the Company.

4. The aforementioned provisions will also be applicable, subject to express agreement, in the case of criminal procedures against the Insured or the employees thereof which have their cause in the exercise of their activities as such, subject to the consent of the defendant.
5. If in the court procedures brought against the Insured there should be a conviction, the Company will decide whether it is appropriate to appeal to the competent Higher Court; if it does not deem the appeal appropriate, it will inform the party concerned thereof, and the latter will be free to lodge it on its own exclusive account. In this latter event, if the appeal lodged were to give rise to a sentence favourable to the interests of the Company, it will be obliged to meet the cost of the expenses arising from such appeal.
6. When any conflict arose between the Insured and the Company, prompted by the latter having to maintain in the loss interests contrary to the defence of the Insured, the Company will inform the Insured thereof, without prejudice to taking the measures which, because of their urgent nature, are necessary for the defence. In this case, the Insured may choose between maintaining the legal supervision provided by the Company or entrusting its own defence to another person. In this last event, the Company will be obliged to pay the expenses of such legal supervision up to the limit agreed in the Specific Conditions.

When in the civil part an amicable agreement was reached, the defence in the criminal part is discretionary on the part of the Company and is subject to the prior consent of the defendant.

Specific exclusions on Personal Liability:

In addition to the General Exclusions from all the guarantees of this policy described in Article 4 of these General Conditions, the consequences brought about or caused by the following incidents are not guaranteed:

- a) Damage which has its origin in the breach of or voluntary failure to observe positive Legal rules or of those governing the activities object of the insurance.
- b) Damage to goods or animals that are in the possession of the Insured, or the person for whom the latter is answerable, for his/her own use, or that have been entrusted or rented out to him/her to use, look after, transport, use for working purposes or operate.
- c) Damage caused by the contamination of the ground, waters or the atmosphere, unless the cause thereof should be accidental, sudden and unforeseen or not anticipated by the Insured.

- k) Damage caused by products, completed works and services rendered, after they have been delivered to clients or after they have been rendered.
- l) Damage caused to movable or immovable property which, for their use or enjoyment, handling, transformation, repair, safe-keeping, deposit or transport, have been entrusted, assigned or rented to the Insured, or which are in his/her possession or sphere of control.
- m) Financial losses that are not the consequence of a material damage covered by the policy, as well as the financial losses that are the consequence of a bodily harm or material damage not covered by the policy.
- n) Damage caused by engaging in obviously dangerous sports, such as mountaineering, underwater activities, shooting or similar.

LIABILITY CONDITIONS

- 1) In the event of any claim the liability of the Company shall be conditional on the Insured claiming indemnity or benefit having complied with and continuing to comply with the terms of this Policy.
- 2) In the event of a claim under this Policy the Insured shall:
 - a) Take all reasonable precautions to minimize the loss.
 - b) As soon as possible telephone the Company to notify the claim stating the Benefits required.

Telephone number (24/7) for assistance is: +632 8866 7388

- c) Freely provide the Company with all relevant information.
 - d) Make no admission of liability or offer promise or payment of any kind.
- 3) The Company is not liable in respect of any Benefit which would otherwise be payable under this Policy should there be another insurance in force covering the same benefits which predates this Policy, except for Section D.
- 4) PGA Sompso will not reimburse or consider reimbursing any expenses which were not previously approved. Previously approved expenses will have to include the claim number obtained from PGA Sompso prior to send the official receipts, and letter explaining the reason and circumstances of why the Travel Assistance Services for which expenses are claimed were not obtained from PGA Sompso directly.
